WHAT IS HUMAN TRAFFICKING?

Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery that involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain labor or commercial sex acts. It affects millions of people worldwide, including in the United States, and can happen in any community.

TYPES OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

- Labor Trafficking: The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services through force, fraud, or coercion.
- Sex Trafficking: The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, obtaining, or advertising of a person for commercial sex acts through force, fraud, or coercion.

WARNING SIGNS IN THE HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY

As a hospitality worker, you may encounter situations that could indicate human trafficking. Be aware of these warning signs:

- Guests who appear malnourished, injured, or show signs of physical abuse
- Individuals who seem fearful, anxious, or not allowed to speak for themselves
- People who lack control of their identification documents

- Guests who appear to be under the control or influence of others
- Individuals who seem disoriented or unfamiliar with their location
- Multiple people sharing a room with very few personal belongings
- Guests who avoid eye contact or interaction with staff
- Evidence of excessive security measures (cameras, locks, bars on windows)
- Individuals who appear to be living or staying at the property long-term
- Signs of people being transported in groups at unusual hours
